President's Report

Greetings Comrades

June started with the Veterans supper on the 1st. Unfortunately, we are getting smaller every year. The Ladies Auxiliary put on a great meal, as usual Thank you ladies.

Heather and I attended the ANAF ladies tea on the 3rd and took our turn at pouring. We enjoyed the afternoon.

A few of our members attended the Cadet review at the Memorial Hall on the 5th. It brought back memories of my youth as I was an air cadet for five years.

A big thank you to Comrade Dennis Stewart who is organizing the Hong Kong veteran's plaque dedication which will be held at our branch on Sunday, July 8th at 2:00. Everyone is invited.

Our Comrade Chuck Plamondon has hung up his broom and dustpan due to health. Orest Homeniuk is his stead. We thank Chuck for keeping the sidewalks clean the last few years. We already see the great job that Orest is doing.

We are in our summer break for meetings so hope to see you all in September.

Over 60 Club

June 21st was the first day of summer. On this day, our attendance at the Over 60 Club was one of the lowest this year. This low attendance was probably due to the celebration of Indigenous People's Day occurring on the same day as the Over 60 Club. Our congratulations and best wishes to the Indigenous People.

Reverend Sharman, in his preface to saying grace, spoke of his father's experiences as a veteran. These experiences reflected a spirit of unity and good fellowship among veterans. One of the Over 60 Club purposes is to promote these experiences among all members

Wishing everyone a very enjoyable summer.

Over 60 Entertainment

June 21st – first day of summer!
Welcome.

In spite of the heat, activities at the Park and another dinner down the street, we still had a good size crowd today. Thank you to everyone who attended.

We were served a very tasty chicken dinner with a chocolate brownie for desert. Pride and Joy band played music for the couples who enjoyed listening and dancing the afternoon away.

Once again Jessie James will be back to entertain us for Rodeo Days, July 19th. Get out your hats and shine up those cowboy boots for a great afternoon.

This month's winners were:

Door Prize - Dexter Harvey
Bottle Draw - Roy Karasiuk
Meat Draw - Helen Starodub
Helen Hiebert
Isabel Anderson
Marlene Sahulka

Big thank you to my volunteers, Liz Flett and Dale and Carol Hiscock. See you all then.
